A remixes collection of "Gotta Groove ft. dj Teresa" captures the new sounds of house music.

November 22, 2010 – Tampa, FL – Roja Records announces the release of "Gotta Groove ft. dj Teresa" THE REMIXES Vol 1 on www.Beatport.com December 10, 2010. This volume showcases some of the newest and underground sounds of house music from Ibiza and Europe featuring remixes from Pete Maguire (Ireland), Michael Fiorente (Italy), Ginobeat (Hawaii, USA), Matt Funk (Malta) and Kaéfe (Spain).

"Gotta Groove" is dj Teresa's ode to house music with strong, captivating lyrics and enticing saxophone hooks. The remix package contains a variety of House styles which begins with Pete Maguire, who was given the tall task of creating a "Cocoon Ibiza" style track. He pulled it off with finesse, creating a dub version that eloquently uses the sax and bass in funky and unique ways, while the breakdowns have the feel of the crowd noise generated by an electrically charged soccer game. Michael Fiorente has delivered a peak hour vocal track with a powerful synth hook and driving four-four beat that has received feedback as the best track on the release.

Ginobeat's remix is perfect for any Ibiza sunset with Latin inspired percussion and artistic use of both sax and vocals. With a strong bass line and powerful vocals, Matt Funk's Remix oozes a hint of rock & roll influence with true cross-over potential and is already receiving radio air play in Malta and compilation licensing requests from prominent labels such as Ga Ga Records (<http://www.GaGaRecords.com>). Finishing out the EP is a funky tech house version, the "Kaéfe is Rockin Rules Mix", which cleverly samples the vocals and sax for a fun track to make the crowd bounce.
